

Operation Encompass – Process Map

This process intends to notify schools as soon as possible the day following a domestic incident where a child has been a witness, present or involved, where police have attended. This process does not replace existing child protection/safeguarding arrangements.

