ATTENDANCE POLICY

Issue 8

This policy is one of a series in the school's integrated safeguarding portfolio designed to safeguard children and promote their well-being.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

RATIONALE

This policy is one of a series in the school's integrated safeguarding portfolio designed to safeguard children and promote their welfare.

Good attendance and punctuality are essential as they are key factors in high achievement. Here at Elmwood, parents, carers, teachers and governors have a responsibility to encourage maximum attendance and punctuality.

Research shows that schools with excellent attendance and punctuality achieve far better results with pupils making significantly greater levels of progress. We want all our children to achieve and, therefore, ask for your support in this matter.

The attendance policy is based on the fundamental ideas highlighted in the School's Inclusion Policy and Equal Opportunities Policy.

The school and other appropriate agencies will work together to achieve our aims.

The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child underpins all policies that are implemented at Elmwood Junior School. Specifically for this policy we are seeking to uphold:

- Article 3 – the best interests of the child must be a top priority in all decisions and actions that affect children;
- Article 18 – state organisations must support parents by creating support services for children and by giving parents the help they need;
- Article 28 – every child has the right to an education, which is delivered through the child's regular attendance at school.

AIMS

- To encourage prompt arrival at school
- To encourage regular attendance
- To ensure that routines are in place for monitoring attendance and for early identification of any difficulties
- To teach our children the importance of the above life skills.

The school aims to establish good practice by operating an attendance policy within which staff, pupils, parents, governors and the Education Welfare Service can work in partnership. The school follows the guidance on maintaining registers and monitoring attendance expected by the DFE.

PROCEDURES/MONITORING

Absence

- Parents/Carers are required to inform the school on the first day a child is absent. The reason given will be noted in the school's electronic register.
- Unexplained absences will be followed up by the Attendance Officer firstly by telephone call to parents/carers, if no reply, then by letter. Several days unexplained absence where the school is unable to contact the parent/carer, will be referred to the Education Welfare Officer so that they can do a home visit.
- Persistent absence will be discussed with parents and where no improvement is seen, a referral will be made to the Education Welfare Officer. If a particular reason is identified, the school will endeavour to provide support

i) Authorised Absence

Many absences are for good reasons and are, therefore, authorised. These include absence for:-

- Illness (type of illness required)
- Medical
- Religious observations
- Compassionate leave such as bereavement

Where children are persistently absent for the reasons above, the parent/carer will be asked to provide documentary evidence to support the absence such as a doctors letter or copy of a prescription.

ii) Unauthorised Absences

These would be absences where the reasons are not considered acceptable by the school or Local Authority. For example:-

- The Parent/Carer or younger sibling is unwell
- Term time holidays
- Parents woke up late and, therefore, do not think they should send their child to school late
- Not aware of school term dates

A long period of absence without any communication from the parents/carers may result in a child losing his/her place in school. The school must give 20 school days written notice to the parents/carers advising them that their child will be removed from the school's roll. Before the child is removed from the school's roll, a Child Missing in Education referral must be forwarded to the Educational Welfare Service.

Parents often want to take their children on holiday during term time and sometimes for extended periods to their home country. The Head Teacher only has discretion to grant leave for exceptional circumstances. This discretion does not extend to family holidays.

iii) Following up Attendance Issues - Procedures

a) The Half Termly Education Welfare Officer Meeting

Each half term the Attendance Officer meets with the Education Welfare Officer to discuss any concerns and follows up the progress of individuals. Prior to the meeting the following information is collected:

- Attendance record for any child with less than 90% attendance
- Attendance record for any child whose absence/punctuality is identified by the school as a cause for concern

Information is shared about previous cases and decisions taken about the next stages of intervention where this is appropriate. Decisions taken are recorded on the attendance monitoring sheet. It is expected that reasonable steps have been taken by the school prior to Educational Welfare intervention.

Following the meeting with the Educational Welfare Officer, class teachers are notified of the outcome and the Attendance Officer will follow up any action agreed with the Educational Welfare Officer

b) School Procedures in Cases for Intervention

Although a range of strategies and actions will be taken on an informal basis, a formal procedure is applied where a pupil's attendance becomes a cause for concern:

- Discussion on an informal level with the child/parent and reminder about the importance of regular attendance and punctuality
- Where an absence is unexplained and telephone calls have been unsuccessful, a letter is sent home requesting a return slip explaining the absence. The letter will state that if a response is not received within a specific timescale, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised.
- If attendance remains erratic, a letter is sent from school drawing attention to the child's attendance and enclosing an individual registration certificate showing the pattern of attendance. The parent/carer will be advised that the attendance will be monitored and that they will be contacted again if it does not improve. If no improvement is seen, a letter is sent home requesting a meeting to discuss the pattern of attendance

- The next stage is for the parent/carer to be invited to a meeting with the Educational Welfare Officer at school. If attendance does not improve following this meeting then a formal referral will be made to the Educational Welfare Service.

At all times we believe that a positive approach which aims for co-operation is essential if improvements in attendance are to be sustained.

Penalty Notices

Any unauthorised leave of absence during term time of 5 days or more can result in a penalty notice being issued by the Educational Welfare Service. The penalties are issued to each parent, for each child, and are for £60 if paid within 21 days rising to £120 if paid between 21 and 28 days.

In addition a penalty notice for £60 (£120 if paid late) can also be issued where a child has had 8 or more sessions (4 days) unauthorised absence within a 6 week period. This includes lateness after registers close at 9.20am for 8 sessions or more.

A separate penalty notice is issued for each child at the school who has taken more than 5 days leave of absence or had 8 or more sessions of unauthorised absence within a 6 week period. Each person with parental responsibility living at the same address as the child will receive a separate notice for each child.

If penalty notices remain unpaid the parents/carers can be prosecuted and could receive a fine or even a prison sentence.

PUNCTUALITY

School doors open at 8.40am and children are expected to be seated in class at 8.50am for registration. Children arriving after 8.50am must go to the office to be recorded in the late register.

Registers officially close for the morning at 9:20am - any child arriving after this time, although marked on site, will be considered absent for the morning session. (See Authorised and Unauthorised absences). Children attend school for a minimum number of hours each week. If children are regularly late, they may be asked to make up the time missed during break/lunch times.

In cases of unacceptable levels of lateness after registers close, the Education Welfare Service as a last resort can issue a penalty notice for £60 rising to £120 for non-payment (see Penalty Notices).

School finishes at 3:10pm and children should be collected promptly from their class's designated playground.

Repeated late arrivals and late collections may be referred to the school's Education Welfare Officer.

If parents are planning to take their children off our school roll they must provide details of the new school. In cases where children have not been allocated a new school place or they are leaving the country, the parent/carer must provide the school with their new address and any other supporting documentation requested by the school. A Child Missing in Education referral must be forwarded to the Educational Welfare Service by the school and the child must not be removed from roll until confirmation has been received from Educational Welfare to do so.

The reason for children leaving and their destination school (where applicable) must be recorded on the schools computer system (SIMS). The local authority must be also be advised within 5 days of a child being taken off roll.
