Under the law, the school is required to inform you how we process personal data relating to our pupils and their families.

Why we collect and use this information

- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to provide appropriate support to pupils with medical conditions or additional needs
- to ensure the safety of pupils and other members of the school community
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and in the public interest, as set out in the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (UK GDPR) and UK law, including:

- Articles 6 and Article 9 of UK GDPR

- Education Act 1996
- Section 3 of the The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

The submission of school census returns, including a set of named pupil records, is a statutory requirement on schools under Section 537A of the Education Act 1996. This means that schools are not required to obtain parent or pupil consent to collect and process pupil data.

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, we will inform you whether you are required to provide the data or if your consent is needed.

Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

Where we are processing data based on your consent, you have a right to withdraw this consent at any time.

Storing pupil data

Personal data relating to pupils and their families is stored in line with our GDPR Data Protection Policy (see the school's website). In accordance with UK GDPR, we will not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Who we share pupil information with

We will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so. For example safeguarding information can be shared with appropriate agencies without your consent, in order for us to fulfil our duty to protect pupils or to prevent a crime.

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupils attend after leaving us

- companies which provide essential IT and administrative services to the school

Please see Appendix 1 for the most recent list of companies and organisations we are working with.

The information that we share with these parties includes the following:

- name and contact details
- safeguarding, medical or SEND information where appropriate
- attendance or behavioural information where appropriate

Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards that Elmwood Junior School upholds are imposed on the processor.

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data.

Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
